FROM THE PRESIDENT

BY JOY POOLE, GMTA PRESIDENT

The Summer break has come and gone. I do hope you had a time to relax before starting back into the Fall teaching schedule. The GMTA Executive Board members have been busy this Summer preparing for the upcoming academic year. I appreciate the dedication of our board members to continually provide outstanding GMTA events.

The online registration deadline for MTNA Competitions is September 11th at 3:00 PM. VP of Competitions, Ashley Craig-Diaz, will share important changes to the competitions. These changes will be highlighted in her newsletter report. Complete guidelines for competitions can be found at MTNA.

I hope you are making plans to attend the 2019 GMTA Conference. The conference will be November 7-9 at Columbus State University. Thank you to our VP of Programs, Dr. Owen Lovell, for planning an exciting conference. Online registration is now open on the GMTA website. Look for complete details throughout this newsletter. Take advantage of this opportunity for learning and camaraderie with fellow teachers. I am looking forward to seeing you in Columbus.

Dr. Jeri-Mae Astolfi, Commissioned Composer Chair, along with Rebekah Healan Boles, Immediate Past President, have headed up an improved application process for the selection of the GMTA Commissioned Composer. Applications are now online at georgiamta.com along with an updated composer webpage. Thank you to both of you for your work in this area.

Take a look around the GMTA website for other improvements including a new online application for the GMTA Judges List. While on the website be sure to check out the calendar and information about grants, our upcoming conference and student activities. GMTA provides many opportunities for teachers and students. I encourage each of you to take part as we further the art of music throughout Georgia.

Focused on the future!

FROM THE PRESIDENT-ELECT

JAN ADAMS, NCTM

We had 14 of 20 LAPs at our August 2019 meeting at Clayton State University. It was great to welcome seven newly elected LAPs to our GMTA Association. I am very encouraged by the young faces who are getting involved in GMTA. The future of GMTA looks very promising. There are many opportunities for performance and workshops within our Local Associations. Make a promise this year to become more involved in your Local Association. Every member is important.

I hope to see all of you at our Conference in November at Columbus State!

Preparations for the 2019 annual GMTA state conference at Columbus State University's Schwob School of Music are on schedule and within the proposed budget. As a reminder, the dates are November 7-9, and you will be able to register for the conference, banquet, and access the reservations portal for the conference hotel by visiting the GMTA conference website, <https://georgiamta.org/conference.php>.

Here are some highlights: Our session presenters— mainly from Georgia, and a couple from out of state, plus two of our collegiate chapters— have all confirmed. Conference attendees will be entertained and educated in 50-minute session time blocks, running two rooms concurrently. This format was chosen using member feedback from last year's post-conference survey. Session rooms are a short walk from each other, in the same building and on the same floor. Conference parking is free, and right across the street from the Schwob School of Music.

We will be treated to 3 pedagogy headliner sessions, one each day, featuring Katherine Fisher and Dr. Julie Knerr Hague from Piano Safari. Their sessions are titled, "Rote Teaching: A New Paradigm", "Excellence from the Start: Foundations of Piano Technique", and "Piano Safari: The Journey Begins."

Our performance headliner recital, featuring internationally-celebrated artists Wendy Warner (cello) and Henry Kramer (piano) will be an all-Chopin program. Half of the concert will be cello and piano, and the other half, solo piano. The performance headliners will also conduct concurrent string and piano masterclasses on Saturday morning of the conference in two adjacent concert halls.

We are pleased to welcome back vendor booths at the 2019 conference! They will be exhibiting in a large, open lobby area, right outside our primary session space. Academic institutions, music-related businesses, and interested individuals, please contact Mandy Reynolds soon (and check out <https://georgiamta.org/exhibitor-contract.php>) if you are interested in exhibiting at this conference, as vendor spaces are limited.

With the 2019 conference, we also return to celebrating our GMTA concerto competition winners in a performance with the CSU orchestra on Thursday night. Our commissioned performance with composer Terry Lowry and the Carrolton Jazz Orchestra will happen on Friday afternoon, and they'll join in again for an encore performance during Friday night's post-concert reception, sponsored by Columbus State University.

If your schedule allows, plan on coming to the Friday evening banquet, as we celebrate our 2019 Teacher of the Year, and welcome a distinguished guest from CSU, L. Rexford "Rex" Whiddon (past MTNA and GMTA president). The banquet will be set in an art gallery with a nicely varied menu and dessert options, and is $27 per person, including tax. It is within walking distance of the other conference venues.

In addition to education and networking among friends old and new, there will be opportunities to celebrate our students in performances sprinkled throughout each day of the 2019 conference. Let's show them encouragement with your presence!

Finally, I must acknowledge the incredible support and welcome we've received from Columbus State University and the faculty, staff, and administration at the Schwob School of Music - they are eager to host us, and have gone "above and beyond" at every turn to ensure GMTA has a great conference at their school. Let's also thank the Columbus Music Teachers Association, as the local chapter plays an important role, behind the scenes, in facilitating a smooth-running conference. See you there in November!

GMTA Conference Lodging

This year's conference lodging is located just 1.5 miles from the conference site:

Hampton Inn & Suites Phenix City-Columbus Area

620 Martin Luther King Jr. Parkway

Phenix City, AL 36869

The GMTA group rate for rooms is $117, including a free hot breakfast. We have a nice mix of double queen rooms and deluxe single king rooms available in this non-smoking hotel. Amenities include a fitness center, business center, and an outdoor pool. Additional taxes: 15%, thankfully no added $5 GA room fee this year. Rates are guaranteed until October 6, 2019.

The deadline to register at a discounted rate and purchase banquet tickets is October 21. Click here for conference registration: <https://georgiamta.org/conference.php>) or see page 20 of this newsletter.

Make reservations by calling (334) 664-0776 and asking for the GMTA conference rate, or online via this direct link:

MTNA FOUNDATION

JORDAN SOMMER, CHAIR

The Foundation Fund is the repository for all funds from the former MTNA Foundation that was integrated into MTNA on July 1, 2003. It is the fund that receives all tax-deductible contributions to MTNA, and is held and maintained separately from MTNA funds. Since the establishment of the MTNA Foundation in 1989, many thousands of dollars have been provided in grants and awards to students, gifted composers, outstanding teachers and performers and to local associations. By investing in MTNA through your contribution to the MTNA foundation fund, you can support MTNA's mission to advance the value of music study and music making to society and to support the professionalism of music teachers, thus helping us work for a more musical tomorrow.

A summary of Georgia's contribution in 2019 includes one contribution during the first quarter. We hope to increase our support of the Foundation Fund by encouraging all GMTA members to consider making a donation. More info, resources, and guidelines for making a contribution can be found at www.mtnafoundation.org.

AT YOUNG HARRIS COLLEGE, WE BELIEVE THE GREATEST RISK IS LETTING TRUE POTENTIAL REMAIN UNREALIZED.

Our campus is filled with endless opportunities to be bold and dare to be great. This is where young artists can venture to be original, inspire others and do more than they ever imagined.

Musically inclined students can choose from programs of study in Music, Music Education and Musical Theatre.

GMTA AWARDS AND GRANTS

LEIGH ANNE BLEICHNER, GMTA AWARDS CHAIR

The Nolting Award in Composition was established in 1987 and initially funded by beloved GMTA member Betty Nolting. It is given at the GMTA Conference each year to first-place winners in the MTNA Student Composition Competitions for the state-level competitions in each age category.

The Broadhurst Award in Piano was established in 1992 by the Broadhurst family in commemoration of Joan Broadhurst. This award is presented annually at the GMTA Conference to the winner of the MTNA Junior Performance Competition.

The GMTA General Award Fund, established in 1993, includes honorary and memorial gifts and is awarded at the discretion of the GMTA Finance Advisory Committee. Awards from this fund are given to senior string, vocal, and brass/woodwind winners of GMTA Auditions. Donations not designated for a specific fund go into this fund.

GMTA GRANTS

The Georgia Music Teachers Association will award four $400 GMTA Grants to active or collegiate members of GMTA. Awarded grants can go toward student music instruction or professional development (including fees for school institutions or conference registrations for collegiate members).

Any GMTA active or collegiate member is eligible to apply for a GMTA Grant. Grants are awarded each year at the November GMTA State Conference. GMTA members can be awarded a GMTA Grant only once in a five-year period. The application deadline for a GMTA Grant is the 2nd Monday in September at 11:59 PM.

A raffle to support each of these funds will be held at the state conference. Local associations are encouraged to participate by donating items for the raffle.

Welcome Fall 2019!

With cooler weather setting in, most of you are heavily into your teaching year by now. While we are working in our studios and planning conferences and teaching opportunities, there are those teachers who are not a part of our organization who would benefit greatly from being a member. Right now, as you read this, at least one person comes to your mind. When you finish reading this article, send them a quick email with the attached link. Tell them you are thinking about them and would love to invite them to a local chapter meeting. In the last newsletter, Robin Engleman, Committee Chair of the Independent Teachers Forum, shared the following link on “Why Should You Join MTNA.” If you missed it, this is a great short video featuring many faces you probably know. Watch it now, then forward it to someone you know with an invitation to watch and join. I just did! <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=adn-FEi0wTU>

2020 GMTA Regional Auditions will be held on March 14, 2020. GMTA State Auditions for Pre-College Piano and Piano Concerto, Piano Duet, and Voice will be held on March 28, 2020, at Columbus State University. GMTA State Auditions for College Piano and Piano Concerto, Strings, Woodwinds/Brass, and Instrumental Concerto will be held on March 27, 2020, at Columbus State University.

12th Graders who are not exempt from taking GATE should register for GATE at the local level. Please check with your local association for the date of test and registration deadline.

Grades 4-11: GATE (unless exempt) is required each year even if you have passed the required level in the previous year. Please check with your local association for the date of the test and registration deadline.

A work requirement was added to the 2018 Auditions. Please consider volunteering to help out at the 2020 Auditions events.

Please continue to enter your students in GMTA Auditions, or try it out in 2020! Auditions are comparable to GMEA District and All-State tryouts, and are beneficial to both students and teachers.

ROME

The Rome MTA is preparing for another busy year! We will host our annual Fall Recital and our Jazz & Pop Competition this fall, and then our Spring Competition is scheduled for March. Our category this year is 20th and 21st Century music.

In addition, we will enjoy a workshop presented by Dr. Kasandra Keeling and Dr. Ivan Hurd from the University of Texas San Antonio on September 22. Their topic is "Technique from Opposite Perspectives." Our annual fundraiser takes place at the hospital in December. For "Christmas on the Keys," students perform holiday music in the hospital lobby. Students pay a small entry fee which covers a t-shirt, a donation to the Pediatric Center at the hospital, and the scholarship fund for our local association.

And of course we are looking forward to the GMTA and MTNA conferences!

SAVANNAH

The Savannah Music Teachers Association has set its' first event for September 28. It will be our "Music Fair," a popular event for Kindergarten through 6th graders. They will move from room to room playing rhythm and theory games, playing ensemble music on keyboards, playing recital music, having snacks and receiving candy as they answer musical questions, etc. In October we will have a "Hymnfest." This recital introduces students to hymn playing and teaches them to play for the glory of God. Also in October we will give the GMTA Theory and GATE exams.

In December we will split our students into different groups to play at nursing homes. In early February we will have our annual "Naegeli Metcalf Performance Evaluation Clinic" and once again give the GMTA Theory exams. PEC allows all of our students to be evaluated, no matter what age or level of performance ability. We will also hold Local Auditions on the same day. In April we will have our Senior and Honors Recital, which honors graduating seniors and gives other high school students a chance to perform.

We are looking forward to our events this year and are hoping for more participation as our newer teachers enter their students for the first time.

ARTS AWARENESS & ADVOCACY

DEBRA HUGHES, NCTM, ARTS AWARENESS & ADVOCACY CHAIR

You can make a difference! Below are some of the ways GMTA members can be encouragers and take action as ARTS ADVOCATES:

- ◆ Make your voice heard. Be sure to reach out to your friends, family and colleagues. The more of us that speak out the better.
- ◆ Send a message to your Congressional delegation in support of the continued funding of the National Endowment for the Arts. Connect with your Representative and Senators.
- ◆ Tell your local news that you support the arts. Customize a "Letter to the Editor" to send to your local media.
- ◆ Tell your story about the power of the arts! Each of us can create our own Statement on the Proposed Elimination of the NEA in the Federal Budget.

“OCTOBER is the National Arts & Humanities Month – Established in 1993 to encourage Americans to engage and explore the facets of the arts and humanities and other cultures, it is now celebrated every October as it began a habit of lifetime of active participation. It is the United States’ largest annual celebration of the arts. The NAH has four primary goals: to create a national, state, and local focus on the arts and humanities through the media; to encourage the active participation of individuals, as well as arts, humanities, and other interested organizations nationwide; to provide an opportunity for federal, state, and local business, government and civic leaders to declare their support for the arts and humanities; and to establish a highly visible vehicle for raising public awareness about the arts and humanities.” Hmmm....since 1954 GMTA has been doing this via its teachers. We are not just training our students how to be artistically skilled musicians but also to be music lovers, advocating supporters, and promoting endorsers! Whew! Blessings on you as you consider and fulfill this important role!
